

Today, Governor Little signed a state-wide stay-home order, effective immediately, for the next 21 days.

What does this mean?

- ➡☐ All citizens, sick or not, are required to self-isolate (i.e. stay home). This excludes healthcare, public safety and essential workers as defined by the executive order (see link below).
- ➡☐ You may leave your home for essential services.
- ➡☐ Employers who do not provide essential services must take all steps necessary to have employees work remotely.
- ➡☐ Restaurants are ordered to be closed except for drive-thru, pick-up and delivery.
- ➡☐ Non-essential businesses and services will close their physical locations. This includes bars, nightclubs, gyms, recreational facilities, entertainment venues, convention centers, hair and nail salons, and others not included in the “essential” category as defined in the order.
- ➡☐ Limit public transit
- ➡☐ Limit all discretionary travel
- ➡☐ You may go outside near your home but must stay 6-feet away from individuals not part of your household.

Full details of this order may be viewed here: <https://coronavirus.idaho.gov>

The statewide stay-home order is being finalized with public health, local officials, and business today and will be available later today at <https://coronavirus.idaho.gov/>.

GUIDANCE FOR GOVERNOR BRAD LITTLE'S STATEWIDE STAY-HOME ORDER

Updated March 25, 2020

Self-isolate

ALL residents of Idaho must self-isolate and stay and work from home as much as possible, unless you work in healthcare, public safety or an identified "essential business" as defined in order.

Residents can leave homes to obtain or provide essential services.

People at higher risk (over 65 and/or health-compromised) should avoid leaving their homes.

Employers that do not provide essential services as defined in order must take all steps necessary for employees to work remotely from home.

"Essential" facilities & services open

Grocery stores, healthcare facilities, gas stations, pharmacies, essential state and local government functions, laundromats/laundry services, financial institutions, residential and home-based care, veterinary services, hardware stores, limited child care for essential workers, infrastructure, and other businesses essential to the safety and well-being of the residents as defined in the order remain open. Restaurants open but only for drive-thru, carry-out, or delivery.

"Non-essential" facilities & services closed

Includes indoor gyms, recreational facilities, nightclubs, bars, entertainment venues, convention centers, hair and nail salons, public events and gatherings, dine-in restaurants (drive-thru, carry-out, delivery to continue), and other facilities and services not included in "essential" businesses as defined in order.

Limit public transit

Only to provide or obtain essential services.

Limit travel

All non-essential travel must cease.

No gatherings

Limit all non-essential gatherings of any number of individuals outside the household.

Outdoor activity OK

Outdoor activity near your home is not prohibited but residents are encouraged to keep distance of 6-feet from others not in their household.

Practice good hygiene

Wash hands, clean high touch surfaces, cover coughs and sneezes, and do not shake hands.

*Order in effect Wednesday, March 25, 2020, and will remain in effect for at least 21 days
Governor Little and public health officials will reassess before end of 21-day period
Final Stay-Home Order will be available at coronavirus.idaho.gov*
